Report of Principal and School Improvement Council

The accomplishments and recognitions of the 2009-2010 school year confirms again Wade Hampton High School's standing as one of the top High Schools in South Carolina. The attention given to the individual student continues to be our number one priority. The crown jewel of Wade Hampton's accomplishments during this 50th anniversary year was the honor of being named the 2010 Carolina First Palmetto's Finest High School. Winning the CFPF Award during Wade Hampton High School's golden anniversary year is significant. It is an achievement unlike any other and the foundation upon which we will build the next 50 years of excellence.

Two other outstanding awards bestowed upon the Generals this year included the Palmetto Gold Award and the Palmetto Gold Closing the Gap Award. This is the second year in a row WHHS has been recognized with these two state Gold Awards for academic excellence. Additionally, WHHS was recognized by the SDE with the High Performance Award for SAT and ACT, a report card rating of Excellent, the SCASA Principal of the Year, and the SCAAA Athletic Director of the Year. One of our teachers was selected for a Fulbright Scholarship to Germany, an English teacher was named as a National Teacher of Excellence, a science teacher honored with a Distinguished Service Award, and a social studies teacher selected to participate in The Korean Society: Summer Fellowship. Over 10% of our faculty is Nationally Board Certified.

There were awards bestowed upon student organizations. The National Honor Society was named 2010 Outstanding Service Project Award Winner, Student Council received The Gold Gavel Award, and the AFJROTC was recognized as a Distinguished Unit. The Cross Country team, led by the State Coach of the Year, was the State Runner-up. WHHS was recognized among Newsweek's Top High Schools in America for the 6th consecutive year. Our list of individual student achievements is numerous. But, the honor we cherish the most was the privilege to bestow diplomas to 310 students on June 3, 2010. The graduating Class of 2010 was larger than last year's class and included 87 Life Scholarship qualifiers, 21 Palmetto Fellows Scholarship recipients, and collectively received over $9,000,000 in scholarship offers. We are proud that our graduates want to continue their education beyond high school.

We enjoy a very supportive PTSA and SIC. These two groups along with our faculty and staff help guide our school. As a result, we continue to see EOC test scores rise, enrollment in AP courses increase, and expect our graduation rate to increase for the 5th year in a row. Maintaining this level of quality during tough economic times speaks volumes to the resourcefulness and drive of our students, teachers, parents and community. Our Generals continue to make us proud. Cum audacia!

 Beth Smith, SIC Chairperson
